TEACRESS, AS A RESULT, TAKES FLATLANDS STAKES.

Shorthose, a Hot Favorite, Runs a Poor Race in the Handleap-Steeplechase Easy for Good and Plenty-Three Favorites Succeed at Gravesend Track.

A splendid ride by Willie Davis on Sydney Paget's Teacress in the Flatlands Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, was the feature of the racing at Gravesend yesterday afternoon. Teacress was a re-ceding favorite at 2 to 1, as W. B. Leeds's Merry Lark was backed down to threes, with good support for R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Gamara at 4 to 1. The start was not one of Mars Cassidy's best efforts, as Teacress was almost left at the post, while Lincroft and Bank, a 40 to 1 shot, were off running.

Davis did not begin to hustle Teacress at top speed after the field, but he gradually made up the lost ground until he had joined made up the lost ground until he had joined the rear growd of the bunch on the turn. There it was that he tried to come through on the rail, only to be shut off. But he was patient, and at the last furlong pole he found an opening. With quick wittedness, Davis shot Teacress through this space and took her to the outside. Then he let her down and went to work with hand and heel. As a result the Watercress filly gained rapidly on the vanguard and finally got up in the on the vanguard and finally got up in the very nick of time, winning by a head from Gamara, who was a head before Bank, with Merry Lark, also off slowly, a head back. Davis received a vociferous ovation when he rode back to the scales. The time was 1:08 2-5. Whatever was the matter with the erratic quarter, cannot be answered here. But the fact remains that in spite of a plunge by the Shorthose in the handicap, at a mile and a wise men who sent him to the post an even money favorite the Atheling colt could not get up a respectable gallop much to the satisfaction of the bookmakers. Frank Farrell's Champlain, a 25 to 1 shot, led all the way to the head of the stretch, where W. B. Leeds's Hurstbourne, who went back to 11 to 5, ran over him and won in a gallop by three lengths. Champlain was game under the whip in Hildebrand's hands and lasted long enough to beat Shorthee a head. The race was run in 2:00, over a fast track.

The handicap for all ages, at about six furlongs, which opened the card, was a hard blow for those who made Wotan the chaice at threes, for the Wagner colt could not get inside of the money. Invincible, coupled with Marjoram, as the Albermarle Stable's entry, at 7 to 1, was the winner. Willie Davis riding him out to beat Divination, 10 to 1, by half a length. Shot Gun, 9 to 2, with top weight, beat Van Ness, 6 to 1, by a neck for third money. The time was 1:11 3-5.

T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Good and Plenty, the best jumper in training, had the steeplechase at his mercy. He was hammered down to 1 to 2 and won as he pleased by three lengths in 5:07. Headmaster, 13 to 5, came within an ace of falling at the paddock jump the second time around, losing so much ground thereby that he was no better than third. But he was game at that, Bonfire, 12 to 1, beating him only a head. William Lakeland's Gold Rose, 6 to 1, went to the front after the first quarter of a mile in the fifth race, for maiden two-year-old fillies, at five and a half furlongs, and canhome half a dozen lengths to the good. Frank Weir's Calmness, 15 to 1, took by a head. The time was 1:08 4-5.

Phantom, an even money favorite, ran off with the last race, for maidens, at a mile and a sixteenth, winning by four lengths in 1:51. Ben Crocket, a good thing, backed down from 40 to 1 to fifteens, ran second, a Three favorites got the coin. The weather was fine and the track fast, with the average

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

JOCKEY KELLY'S MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM FATAL INJURY.

Thrown in the Last Race and Trampled On, He Gets Off With a Broken Arm -Rough Riding the Cause-Jockey Martin Defended-Tangle in Names.

Jockey C. Kelly had a narrow escape from death in the last race at Gravesend yester-day. He had the mount on H. B. Durham's Top Right in a field of thirteen starters. As horses reached the lower turn half of the jockeys were whipping with the idea of getting to the front in order to secure the coveted rail position. It was a wild scramble, and the women, fearing an accident, cried out in alarm. Suddenly there was a jam and Top Right was thrown heavily against The collision was so hard that the colt went down in a heap, Kelly disappear-ing under the flying feet of the other racers. When the cloud of dust cleared the boy lay motionless on his side. He had been trampled on and kicked. Stable boys and trackmen rushed toward Kelly from all di-rections. When they reached him he was unconscious. He was deathly pale and blood flowed from several cuts on the head. He was carried to the outer edge of the track. where he was placed on the soft turf to await the coming of the track ambulance. of whom were hysterical. Down through little man, pale as a ghost and trembling like

"My God!" he exclaimed, "It's my boy,

The man was the father of Redfern, who had the mount on R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Silver-foot, wearing colors so similar to the Durham jacket worn by Kelly that Redfern, Sr., had mistaken them. When he reached Kelly and found that his son was uninjured, Redfern wiped the perspiration from his forehead "I will not get over this scare for a week!"

Kelly was lifted into the ambulance and hurried to the jockeys' room in the paddock. Dr. E. H. Hoxie, the track physician, made a hurried examination and found that Kelly was suffering from a compound fracture of the left arm and was also severely shaken ip, but not internally hurt, as it was feared at first. The jockey soon regained consciousness, but was unable to explain the accident. He is under contract to E. R. Bradley, who brought him East at the beginning of the summer meeting at Brighton Beach. The young man has been riding with fair success

The accident was wholly due to rough riding, which is an evil that the stewards at all of the tracks have been trying hard to suppress. It was only day before yesterday that Travers came within an ace of being almost knocked down in the Bay Shore Stakes. On Monday the stewards of the Jockey Club revoked the license of Jockey John Daly for rough tattics in a number of races at Kenilworth, which goes to show that other foul riders may be similarly dealt with. The rough riding has served to take the heart out of many a good jockey. It is a well known fact that one of the best riders in the East will not take chances at Brighton and Gravesend because of the sharp turns, but is at his best on the broader courses at Morris Park and Sheepshead Bay. Such a state of affairs merits drastic measures on the part of the turf authorities.

When Hurstbourne won the handicap the general comment was made, "That settles Jack Martin," probably because Martin, who is in disfavor with his employers, Andre Miller and W. B. Leeds, was charged with handling this horse poorly in a race at Brighton Beach last week. But in the estimation of conservative turimen, Hurstbourne's victory yesterday did not prove wrongdoing on the part of Martin in any degree. The pace was unusually slow, and the fact that Hurst-bourne won in 2:09, while Champlain, a selling plater, managed to beat Shorthose, was used as an argument that the race, as a whole, was no criterion. Tom Welsh, the trainer of Hurstbourne, said he expected to see the Indio colt break down at any moment, and when he won, Welsh was the most astonished man in the paddock. The running of Shorthose on several occasions has excited adverse comment. The colt has been troubled with sore feet and is a sulker, but wise men have persistently backed him when he has run his worst races. Some of the smartest speculators at the track played him yesterday and could not account for his disgraceful two killings framed up which did not succeed. The first was in the fifth race, when Gideon's Queen Rose, a filly by His Highness-Rose This was one of the heaviest plunges of the day, but Queen Rose, after getting away flying, slowly dropped back, and finished in the ruck. Gideon and Lewisohn, nothing daunted, proceeded to put their checks on Ben Crocket in the last race, the odds dropping from 40 to 1 to fifteens. Again luck was against the plungers, as Ben Crocket had a rough journey, being unable to finish better than second, four lengths behind the winner. But if he had been able to secure the rail position at the outset there might have been another story to tell, to the detriment of the ring.

There was a tangle among those who played Queen Rose when Gold Rose won. Queen Rose was No. 3 on the programme, while Gold Rose was No. 13. As the latter flashed past the judges in front, a stout man on the lawn threw his hat in the air, and, rushing back to the stand, he shrieked:
"Hooray! I won two hundred! Hey, there,

The woman to whom he addressed these welcome remarks jumped up and down and cried for joy. Then the man saw No. 13 hoisted as the winner instead of No. 3, and

"It was the wrong Rose!" he moaned, and ne woman moaned with him.

Teacress, in winning the Flatlands Stakes, came within a fifth of a second of equalling the best record for the race at the distance. She has been a consistent performer all season for the Paget stable, and was heavily played by the stable's connections. Bank, who ran third, was backed down to 40 to 1. Horse Stumbles, Throws Driver Out and Big Field Rushes By.

MINEOLA, L. I., Sept. 21.—A good field of harness horses contested the 2:18 class pacing event to-day at the Queens-Nassau counties dual fair here. Andrew Rohr's Blackburn's Directly captured the race, winning easily in each heat. New York and Brooklyn horses won three out of the four

SMATHERS'S DR. STRONG BEATEN Being Better Handled, John Taylor Wins

2:10 Trot at Columbus. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Dr. Strong, owned by E. E. Smathers of New York, was beaten to-day by John Taylor, the 1903 M. and M. winner. It was a case of superior handling by Dick Wilson. Spear was a bit slow in making his drives through the stretch. He won by a neck twice, but the Taylor horse had only his neck or nose in front three times. Dr. Strong was a hot favorite, and tickets on him were in demand at $100 to $40. At times the wind blew a gale down the backstretch, playing havoc with chances for uniform fast time. Major Delmar was not started because of the adverse conditions. He goes to-morrow. Brownie Wilton came close to going into the 2:10 list when he outraced Mainland and won the unfinished outraced mainiand and won the unmission 2:19 trot. Morning Star, the prohibitive favorite, had a cinch in the 2:19 pacing stake. Bell Mc, during a lull in the wind, took a mark of 2:08%, when she raced away from the rest of her field. The summaries:

Smallest Boat Came in First.

Dr. J. B. Palmer's keel sloop yacht Naiad has this season won more than twenty prizes in races sailed on the lower bay, and at the annual regatta of the Greenville Yacht Club annual regards of the Greenville I acht Club recently tackled the crack sloops Gretchen and Sovereign II. and the yawl Lady Eldredge. The race was watched with considerable interest by the yachtemen, as the rivalry among the boats was keen. The Naiad, through skilful handling, gained the weather borth and at once took the lead. The course was from Robbin's Reef light to the Romer Shoal light and back. The yachts had a head tide and head wind going down the bay, and by the time the Narrows was reached the Naiad was a mile in the lead. Off Coney Island Point the Naiad had increased her lead, the Lady Eldredge being second. At the turning mark the Naiad led by I hour and 10 minutes. The Naiad led by I hour and 10 minutes. The Naiad led by I hour and 10 minutes. The Naiad led by I hour and the Lady Eldredge was second, more than an hour behind, and the Sovereign II. was third. The race was sailed without time allowance, and the victory of the Naiad was all the more remarkable because she was the emallest boat of the lot. recently tackled the crack sloops Gretchen

Columbia's scrub team gave the warsity football men a scare yesterday afternoon in the scrimmage practice on South Field Coach Morley gave the ball to the second eleven in the centre of the field, and ordered them to do their best against the big fellows The scrubs carried the ball right down th gridiron, grinding through the 'varsity line for two or three yards on every try. twenty yard line. Lindau took the ball and cleared Buell's end for fifteen yards, and only Post's tackling saved the touchdown. On the one yard line the 'varsity held, and stopped the line plunges of Martin and Williams The scrimmage work ended here, the usual jog around the field completing the day's work. Morley was content to give the varsity defence work only, and did not let them have the ball to show what they could do against the scrub line. Metzenthin's work at quarter back on the 'varsity was a great improvement. His showing in the Yale game last year, the first time that he played the quarter back position, was poor only because of inexperience. If his present work continues he will win the place from Henry Post, stroke of the 'varsity crew reported for work as an end, and did well. Slocum, who played end at Brown in 1899 and 1900, and who has been two years in the School of Physicians and Surgeons, came out yesterday. He is a big man, weighing about 179 pounds. Toy and Suydam, two players who have had little previous experience, also reported. Dave Smythe coached the teams, and is expected to be out to play in a few days. Nebeker, a School of Mines in a few days. Nebeker, a School of Mines man, who comes from Utah, where he played on the State Agricultural College eleven, also will report in a short time.

Capt. Bump and Private Brinker of the Eighth United States Infantry, stationed at Governors Island, watched the practice with a view to getting points on coaghing the eleven that is being formed to represent Fort Jay. Brinker is captain of the eleven. The line-up yeaterday was:

Varsity-Post, Ie; Brown, It; Escheverria, Ig; Smythe, c; Stangland, rg; Algeltinger, rt; Buell, re; Metzenthin, qb; Donovan, lib; O'Loughlin, rhb; Fisher, fb.

This afternoon Columbia will play a practice game with De Witt Clinton High School at American League Park.

The football squad at New York University was materially strengthened vesterday by the appearance of Roberts, full back of last year's 'varsity, and two promising 'prep' school men in Perry of Barnard and Judge of Trinity School. Both of the new men were tried out at end, and they did good work considering it was their first appearance. Roberts has taken on considerable weight and should make a formidable man in the back field this fall. The first accident occurred in the scrimmage work, when Coffy, one of last season's substitute ends, and Wolff, the scrub centre, sustained slight injuries in the way of wrenched shoulders. They were forced to retire from practice, but it is thought that they will be able to return to the game within a week. the game within a week.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 21.—The Tigers had their first scrimmage of the season today. The scrubs, under the direction of Bill Edwards, succeeded in getting one touchdown. The varsity was lined up as follows: Miller, right end; Cooney, right tackle; Dillon, right guard; Short, centre: Rafferty, left guard; Daub, left tackle; Crawford, left end; Heim, quarter back; Foulke, right half; Kirkpatrick, left half; McCormick, full back. Heim and McCormick are both Exeter men. These two make a strong combination. The training table for the squad was started to-day. Those booked for seats are: Foulke, Short, Cooney, Dillon, Miller, Kirkpatrick, Burke, Kafer, Heim, McCormick, Dutcher, Rafferty, Carothers, Daub, Crawford, Martin and Willock.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 21.—To-day's two practices of the Harvard football squad were replete with features. Several of last year's 'varsity players returned. The first attempt to pick-a 'varsity eleven was made, the work was stiffened and the men put to tackling the dummy. There were fifty-four men out for work, which was by far the hardest of the week, as the weather was crisp and bracing.

set of the week, as the weather was crisp and bracing.

The most prominent of the men who returned was Ted Meier, left tackle on the eleven last fall until an injury received in the Dartmouth game put him on the side lines. Meier is bigger and heavier than before, weighing 190 pounds. Phil Mills, substitute full back in the Pennsylvania and Yale games last fall, also returned, heavier than last year and in better physical condition. Steve Noyes, substitute quarter back for two years, was another to report. The line up of the team that looked like an attempt to pick an eleven was as follows: Left end. Bacden: left tackle. Meier; left guard, Wilder, centre, Cunniff: right guard, Pell: right tackle. Williams; right end, Montgomery; quarter back. Noves; left half back. Nesmith; right half back. Guild and Hurley; full back, Millset Rocer Derby, substitute, end are both laid up with bad shoulders, received while falling on the ball.

New Haven. Sept. 19.—While making a plunge to catch a rolling ball at football practice this afternoon, Morgan H. Bowman, Jr., captain of the Yale baseball nine and fullback on the eleven, fell on his left shoulder, dislocating it. He will be on the hospital list for at least a week and cannot play against Wesleyan in the opening game next Wednesday. The injury to Bowman takes the best punter of this year's squad out of the game. Last season he dislocated the same shoulder, and the injury to-day may handicap him all season and prevent him from holding his place. Roome, a last year's freshman, will take Bowman's place.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Coach Warner gave his football squad two hours of hard work to-day. The candidates were formed into elevens of equal strength, and soon a scrimmage was on. The eleven on which Capt. Lynah played ouarter back was scored against twice by the eleven on which Birmingham, the entering Mercersburg freshman, played left half back. Birmingham was the life of his eleven, and in this, his first scrimmage, he justified all the expectations that have been formed of him. He made two long runs and then dropped a goal from the field at the thirty yard line. The other score was a touchdown, and was made by consistent bucks through Capt. Lynah's line. Cook, from the University Preparatory School in Cleveland, who has a reputation as a football player and all around athlete, and who was reported as going to Princeton, appeared to-day and was put into the line, where he did good work. Cook is considered one of the best additions to the squad.

The the foot of West Eighty-sixth street. The course is ten miles up the Hudson River and return. Several fast auto boats that have not raced will start, and the committee, in order to make the finishes more interesting, has decided to give the boats their allowance at the start. The boat getting the greatest time will be started first, and the others will follow until the scratch boat is sent off. The rules under which these boats will race have worked out so well that it is expected that only seconds will separate the racers at the finish. The race will be started at 2 o'clock. The second race will be held to-morrow and the third on Saturday. The boat scoring the most points in the series will get the cup and hold it subject to challenge.

Which AUTOMOBILE Will You Buy?

It is a question that is a pretty broad one nowadays. Almost every man you meet has a different favorite. We are prejudiced in favor of the Ford because of the splendid satisfaction it has been giving to purchasers.

Then, have you no iced the number of races the Food has won during the presenseason? Naturally you think that the racing car is quite a different proposition from the stock car sold to the public as a general rule. It is. But when you appreciate that the Ford racer, that is making such a sensation this year, is simply two stock motors mounted together on a light frame, you will see that it does speak for the common stock car, as no other racing car ever has spoken. The stock car has a ten horse-power motor; the racer has twenty horse-power, because the two motors are mounted together.

This small, light Ford machine, the other day at Providence, simply ran away from the thirty-five horse-power Renault French racing car; at Poughkeepsie it even distanced its handicap, against E. R. Thomas' sixty horsepower Mercedes, actually running five miles in faster time than this noted racing

But we are not selling the Ford car simply because it is fast. We recommend it because it is so durable and well made; because it gives satisfaction; because it doesn't get stuck on the hills: because it demands so little in the way of repairs; because it gives a man the fullest pleasure of automobiling, without the trouble and cost of most machines.

We have just received a new carload of Ford Cars from the factory, and can make instant delivery.

Athlete Klely's Suspension Raised Thomas Fitzhugh Kiely, the all around athletic champion, who technically suspended himself by competing at unsanctioned games last sunday, had his suspension unanimously raised by the registration committee yesterday. Kiesy appeared before the committee and explained that he was at Cellic Park as a guest of the lipperary Women's Association, and in order to satisfy the curiosity of some of the fair ones from the "premier county," took a shy at the hammer. He received no prize for the exhibition. It was also reported that Kiely threw the 56-pound weight 40 feet 2 inches, but Kiely says that there was not a "56" on the grounds. This statement was corroborated by the management of Celtic Park. himself by competing at unsanctioned games
